The gym environment during the winter is 64 degrees. However, the changing over into spring can fluctuate. When the outside temperature varies greatly the temperature in the gym can be impacted. When it is a constant 32 or lower the heat will run, and it will be 64. The temps between 36 - 60 outside can leave the gym chilly. On those days, It is best for the gymnasts to dress in layers: long sleeve leotards, leggings, sweats over top, and socks. Will ensure your gymnast is comfortable.
